

Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center

Home to Acute Hospital Rehabilitation Services

A full spectrum of rehabilitation services is available on The Johns Hopkins Bayview campus. The campus is home to acute hospital rehabilitation services, a Comprehensive Inpatient Rehabilitation Unit, outpatient therapy services, geriatric and young adult specialty rehabilitation programs and the Johns Hopkins Burn Center.

Rehabilitation Services

- Inpatient and outpatient rehabilitation services
- Comprehensive Inpatient Rehabilitation Unit
- Subacute and aftercare support groups
- Physical medicine and rehabilitation evaluation and treatment
- Physical therapy services
- Occupational therapy services
- Speech and language pathology services

Specialties

- Burn rehabilitation
- Chronic pain management and therapy
- Community reentry program
- Dizziness and vestibular disorder programs
- Geriatric rehabilitation
- Hand therapy
- Home assessments
- Image Enhancement Program
- Incontinence rehabilitation
- Lymphedema therapy
- Orthopedic rehabilitation
- Osteoporosis management and rehabilitation
- Pelvic musculoskeletal rehabilitation
- Stroke rehabilitation
- Stroke support group
- Swallowing and communication rehabilitation

A full-service, JCAHO-accredited teaching hospital, Bayview offers many rehabilitation services and specialties.

For more information, please contact

Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center

4940 Eastern Avenue
Baltimore, Maryland 21224
Phone: 410-550-0414

Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center is located on the eastern edge of Baltimore city between US routes 95 and 895.

