Walking Directions to Meyer-1 Clinic

From Out-Patient Center/McElderry Parking Garage - (Two options)

■ Take shuttle:

Shuttle located in circle drive in front of Outpatient Center (just outside of parking garage). Shuttles come every 10 -15 minutes and will take patients/visitors to main entrance of The Johns Hopkins Hospital (Wolfe Street entrance). See walking directions below for Wolfe Street entrance.

OR

■ Walk from garage (approximately 15 minute walk):

Walk into Outpatient Center and go up to security/check-in desk and get security wrist band. Let them know that you have appointment in the Meyer-1 Physical Medicine & Rehab Clinic, which is in the main hospital. Security staff will point you in correct direction to walk to main hospital. From security/check-in desk, walk straight to tunnel. There will be signs indicating path to The Johns Hopkins Hospital. Walk through tunnel to stairs/escalators/elevators. Go up to hospital level (there will be two sets of stairs/escalators). At top, turn left and walk straight down the hallway. At first hallway to your right, turn right. Walk down hallway to main lobby of The Johns Hopkins Hospital. Take sharp left around security/check-in desk and walk straight down hallway. At end of hallway, turn right. Look down the hallway and on wall at end of the hallway, you should see a sign that reads "Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation." Walk towards wall. Meyer-1 Clinic is in 1-130, which is directly to your left once you reach the wall. Let the staff in the front of the clinic know that you have an appointment with either a doctor or and therapist (whichever is the case) and the staff will direct you from there for check-in.
