

Curriculum Vitae for Academic Promotion The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine

June 27, 2007

---

Jack Frazer Prince

DEMOGRAPHIC INFORMATION

Current Appointments

Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine
Ophthalmology Department
Clinical Associate

Personal Data

Bayview Medical Campus
410-550-5401
Fax: 414-550-9808?
The Wilmer Eye Institute at White Marsh
443-442-2020
Fax: 443-442-2021
jprince4@jhmi.edu

Education and Training

- 1993-1995    State University of New York, Therapeutic Pharmaceutical Agents Course
- 1979-1983    University of Alabama in Birmingham School of Optometry, Doctor of Optometry
- 1975-1979    University of Maryland Baltimore County, Bachelor of Arts

Professional Experience

- July 2002- present    THE WILMER EYE INSTITUTE
Provide primary eye care including the diagnosis of ocular and systemic pathology, function as a gatekeeper with the responsibility of determining when and which appropriate specialist to consult. Fit contact lenses, Order and interpret Humphrey visual fields, Treatment of anterior segment pathology, Utilized DPA's, TPA's. Clinical teaching of medical students.

April 1995- July 2002 PHYSICIANS EYE CARE CENTER, Baltimore, Maryland, Columbia, Maryland, Ellicott City, Maryland, Charlestown Retirement Community, St. Elizabeth Nursing Home

Provided primary eye care, treatment of anterior segment Pathology, glaucoma diagnosis and treatment, and Post-op cataract care in a variety of settings, Experienced with Humphrey's visual field analysis, Heidelberg nerve fiber layer analysis and foreign body removal. Ran Ophthalmology practices independent of direct supervision, Experienced working with internists in geriatric practice.

March 1994- April 1995 PROFESSIONAL EYE CARE CENTER, Greenbelt, Maryland

Provided optometric services for general practice: e.g. Prescribed contact lenses, analyzed Humphrey visual fields; Performed contrast sensitivity testing.

July 1993- April 1995 Stan Brull, M.D., Owings Mills, Maryland

Prescribed contact lenses (soft, soft-toric, gas permeable, Tinted, extended, frequent replacement, disposable, gas Permeable); diagnosed ocular disease.

October 1993-April 1995 PEARLE VISION CENTER, Catonsville, Maryland, Silver Spring, Maryland

Provided optometric services for general practice; e.g. examined patients, prescribed contact lenses, and diagnosed ocular disease

July 1993-October 1993 U.S. VISION, Laurel, Maryland

Provided routine optometric care and contact lens service.

- October 1991- May 1993 PEARLE VISION EXPRESS, Bel Air, Maryland
1983-1991 Pearle Vision Center, Bel Air, Maryland
- Provided routine optometric care for general practice.
- 1983 CHAUNCEY SPARKS CENTER FOR DEVELOPMENT
AND LEARNING DISORDERS, Birmingham, Alabama
- Examined developmentally young children, and adolescents.
- 1983 BIRMINGHAM VETERANS ADMINISTRATION
HOSPITAL, Birmingham, Alabama
- Examined veterans in a hospital.
- 1982-1083 ALABAMA SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND, Talledega, Alabama, and LOW VISION CLINIC, University of Alabama in Birmingham School of Optometry
- Diagnosed patients with hereditary and geriatric ocular
Disease; prescribed and evaluated low vision aids.
- 1982 VISION SCREENING DEPARTMENT, University of Alabama in Birmingham School of Optometry
- Screened pediatric, adolescent, and geriatric patients for Refractive errors, ocular disease, and binocular vision anomalies.
- 1981-1983 SCHOOL CLINICS, University of Alabama in Birmingham
School of Optometry
- Provided general optometric services including contact lens evaluations, examined strabismic and non-strabismic binocular anomalous patients.

PUBLICATIONS

Prince, Jack, "Opticians Should Not Refract Independently- Organized Optometry Must Fund Studies To Analyze the O.D.'s Role in Protecting Sight," Primary Care Optometry News, October 2005, p.6.

Prince, Jack, "Pigmented Growth Seen on Routine Exam," Primary Care Optometry Optometry News, September 2005, p. 56, 58.

Prince, Jack, "When Eyestrain Isn't Eyestrain- With Duane's Retraction Syndrome, an Ordinary Complaint May Require Surgery," Optometric Management, January 2005,

p. 32-33.

Prince, Jack, "Sun and Shade: Ultraviolet Radiation," Bayview News, Summer 2003.

Prince, Jack, "Preventing Diabetic Eye Disease," Bayview News, Spring 2005.

PROFESSIONAL INTERVIEWS

"When Smoke (Or Dust) Gets in Your Eye," Good Housekeeping, September 2005, p. 68.

"The Ocular Effects of Ultraviolet Light on the Eye," Viacom- Radio interview for Viacom, August 2005.

EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES

Fall 2003 to present- work with medical students teaching clinical skills during clinical observation.

Basic Skills- Direct Ophthalmoscopy- November 2005, January 2006- Direct Ophthalmoscopy- taught Johns Hopkins Medical Students.

September, November, December 2005, Direct Ophthalmoscopy- Developed curriculum for Bayview Internal Medicine Dept. - 2 hour lecture and instruction for Medical Interns- Presented once per month.

November 2003, November 2004, January 2006, Clinical Skills for Medical Students, Taught Skills Lab

CLINICAL ACTIVITIES:

Doctor of Optometry, Maryland -Therapeutic Pharmaceutical Agents, current license.

ORGANIZATIONAL ACTIVITIES:

Maryland Optometric Association 1983-present.

Liaison between Bayview optometry and ophthalmology in order to increase productivity and create a mutually beneficial environment where optometry and ophthalmology benefit from each other.

Recommended and helped develop Optical referral cards for Bayview ophthalmologists to help optical improve sales.

Contact lens survey for Wilmer Optometrists developed for optical financial analysis, 2003.

RECOGNITION:

Beta Sigma Kappa 1983

Summa Cum Laude 1979

Phi Kappa Phi 1979

Maryland Scholastic Award 1975