Create or Update Your CloudCME Account

On Your Computer

Visit the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine CME Portal, CloudCME, at https://hopkinscme.cloud-cme.com and complete the information to create or update your account. It is very important to include the following:

- Credit categories – In order to receive credit, you must check all credit categories where you are eligible to receive credit.
  - Maintenance of Certification (MOC)
    - Will you be claiming MOC points? If applicable, select Yes.
    - Select the MOC Board(s).
    - Enter Diplomate ID.
    - Enter birth month and day.
    - Provide permission for your MOC information to be shared.

*This information must be completed prior to texting your attendance.

- State License number – Please include your prefix letters.
- Mobile phone number – This allows CloudCME to recognize your mobile device.
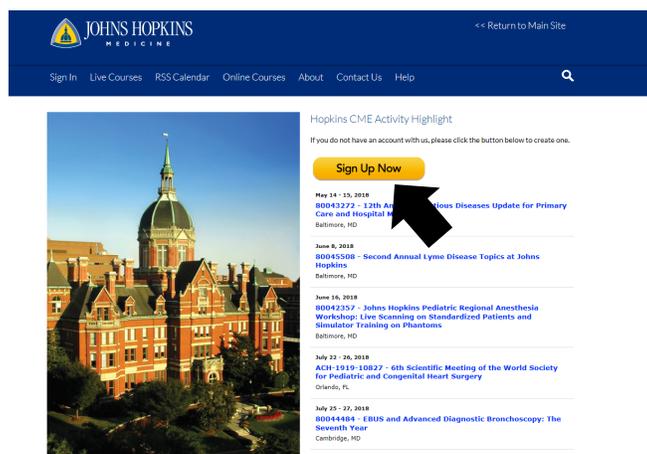

Once you have created or updated your account, follow the steps provided on the opposite side to record your attendance by text, on your computer or from your mobile device.

From your account you can record attendance and view your transcript. You may also access syllabi here, when available.
