

The BEE Award

Recognizing Extraordinary Employees

What is the BEE Award?

The Being Extraordinary Everyday (BEE) Award honors non-nursing employees who demonstrate and exemplify excellence in their daily work. One BEE Award winner is awarded each month.

The winner receives $50 added to their paycheck, Applause points, certificate of recognition, t-shirt and BEE Award badge clip. The winner's department enjoys cookies to remind staff how special and important they are in the work that we do, and a BEE award banner is displayed in their area.

Runners-up (1-2 per month) receive a BEE badge clip and a letter recognizing their accomplishments. All nominees will receive a copy of their nomination.

Who is eligible for the BEE Award?

Any non-nursing employee who is dedicated to their work at Johns Hopkins All Children's, helps inspire others, values different backgrounds, is an outstanding role model, great team member and embraces the unique skillsets and knowledge of others.

How can you nominate your extraordinary employee?
