Episode 43: Developing a gossip free zone

Why do we like to gossip?

- To build our sense of social connection and feeling of group acceptance
- It's entertaining and emotionally rewarding
- We may feel relief if we think we're not as badly-off as those we talk about
- To break up the routine or monotony of a day
- It can give people a sense of power or insider status
- To get back at people we dislike or believe are “less-than” us in some way.

Repetition of gossip does not make it true – just more damaging

Gossip violates our core values of integrity, honesty and respect

Integrity stems from the Latin word 'integer' which means whole and complete. So integrity requires an inner sense of 'wholeness' and consistency of character.

When you are in integrity, people should be able to visibly see it through your actions, words, decisions, methods, and outcomes.

Gossip is contagious and controlling

“

Integrity is doing the right thing, even when no one is watching.

C.S. LEWIS

Not gossiping - or allowing gossip to continue when we hear it - may feel risky and hard to do when people are watching or listening.

Gossip hurts all of us!

We're not gossiping, we're “venting”

When is venting not gossip?

- ✓ Expressing feelings, emotions, or frustration
- ✓ Expressing our own feelings of concern about a situation we are experiencing – without talking about another
- ✓ Using the opportunity to unload our own ideas, options, thoughts – even if they're not fully formulated yet

Venting becomes gossip when we talk about others who are not present, blame others, judge others, make assumptions about people's thoughts, motives, abilities or intentions; exaggerate or over-generalize, or share second-hand "information"

Managing Gossip: Foster Curiosity

Costs & Consequences

Start with small steps. They add up!

Raise awareness

- Why are you telling me this?
- Why are we talking about this?

Stop the spread ...

- Have you discussed this directly with Tricia?

If not,

- When are you planning to have that conversation with her?
- What support do you need to make it more comfortable talking to her?"

Tell the truth about how you feel about gossip

I don't feel comfortable talking about this without John here. I know I appreciate it when people talk to me directly.

The 5 Gatekeepers of Speech

<https://www.upaya.org/2018/01/five-gatekeepers-speech/>

1. Is it true?
2. Is it kind?
3. Is it beneficial?
4. Is it necessary?
5. Is it the right time?

Finally...notice the bright spots

What we pay attention to grows.
