

4th Johns Hopkins Limb Loss and Restoration Symposium

The Johns Hopkins Rehabilitation Network invites you to the Limb Loss Symposium, a conversation on the limb loss journey, from pre-surgery to rebuilding a modified full life with prosthesis.

This symposium is designed for physiatrists, orthopaedic clinicians, and rehabilitation clinicians who treat limb loss patients - but others are also welcomed!

Symposium Schedule:

8:30 - 9:10	Danielle Melton, MD	“Who is the right candidate for Osseointegration vs. Socket?”
9:10 - 9:50	Andreas Kannenberg, MD, PhD	MPK and Standard of Care
9:50 - 11:00	Cosi Belloso, MSPT Lisa Prasso, DPT	System of Care Models and Challenges in the Private and Military Settings
11:00 - 11:30	Linda Marie Williams	Patient Experience and Challenges
11:30 - 12:00	Cecilia Cordova-Vallejos, MD	Adaptive Sports for People with Limb Loss
12:00 - 1:00	Brock Lindsey, MD	Grand Rounds: “When is bone good enough?”
