

Johns Hopkins University GME Fellow Benefits Overview

As of July 1, 2025

Medical Insurance (Effective the date of appointment)

The medical insurance is administered by Wellfleet, and provides medical coverage for postdoctoral fellows at no charge. For more information on medical coverage, go to: jhupostdocs.mycare26.com.

You will be auto-enrolled in individual only coverage as of your appointment effective date. You are eligible to add your spouse, domestic partner, and children to coverage. Dependent coverage is paid for by Johns Hopkins. Changes in enrollment and adding dependents to coverage must take place within 30 days of your appointment, during the annual open enrollment period, or within 30 days of a qualified life event (QLE). Please note: the birth of a child is a life event. To enroll or make eligible changes in coverage, visit jhupostdocs.mycare26.com.

For more information on medical coverage, go to the Wellfleet website. The Wellfleet website also includes an easy-to-use provider directory search tool to find participating providers and facilities. Wellfleet utilizes the CIGNA network to provide nationwide in-network coverage with hospitals, physicians, and laboratories for covered members. You can find participating providers in MD/DC/VA and other states online using the Cigna website.

Dental Insurance (Effective the date of appointment)

The University provides individual dental insurance through Delta Dental at no cost to postdocs. Postdocs can also cover their spouse/domestic partner and children on the dental plan at no cost. Adding dependents to coverage must take place within 30 days of your appointment, during the annual open enrollment period, or within 30 days of a qualified life event (QLE). To enroll your eligible dependents into dental coverage and find out more about what the plan covers, please visit jhupostdocs.mycare26.com.

To search for participating providers, go online using the Delta Dental website and select the Delta Dental PPO Plus Premier network.

Vision Insurance (Effective the date of appointment)

The University provides vision insurance through EyeMed at no cost to postdocs. Postdocs can also cover their spouse/domestic partner and children on the vision plan at no cost. This insurance plan includes eye exams, glasses and contact lenses both in-network and out-of-network. Please note that Wilmer Eye Clinic is not a participating provider for this vision insurance plan. For more information, visit eyemed.com. Your enrollment for individual coverage is automatic but you must enroll your eligible family members in the plan online within 30 days of your appointment, during the open enrollment period, or within 30 days of a QLE. Please visit jhupostdocs.mycare26.com to enroll your dependents.

Additional Vision Benefit - Wilmer Eye Exam

The Wilmer Institute Comprehensive Eye Service for postdocs (not available to dependents) provides one adult comprehensive eye exam/contact lens evaluation per plan year. Student Health & Well-Being (SHWB) Primary Care administers payment of this exam. Appointments may be made at any of the following Wilmer sites:

- Johns Hopkins Hospital 410-955-5080
- Greenspring Station 410-583-2800
- Columbia 410-910-2330
- White Marsh 443-442-2020
- Bel Air 410-399-8443
- Bethesda 240-482-1100

Provider bills for routine eye examination /contact lens evaluations and an Explanation of Benefits (EOB), if received, should be forwarded to SHWB for payment. Contact lenses and eyeglasses are not covered. The Wilmer Institute Comprehensive Eye Service provides 25% off the regular retail price for all prescription eyewear frames, lenses, and lens treatments. Eyeglasses and contact lenses are eligible expenses for the Health Care Flexible Spending Account. For more information, or to submit claims, contact Student Health & Well-Being (SHWB) Primary Care at 410-955-3872.

Health Care Flexible Spending Account (Optional Plan: eligible as of the date of appointment)

A health care reimbursement plan allows Postdocs to use pre-tax dollars to pay for eligible health care expenses not covered by insurance. Maximum contribution allowed is $3,300 per calendar year. To enroll in the FSA, please contact postdocbenefits@jhu.edu to make your election. Elections made during the initial enrollment period will be effective as of the date of your appointment.

Internal Revenue Service regulations govern eligibility; you must receive a wage/salary to participate. Any compensation received through a grant in the form of a fellowship stipend is excluded from eligibility. Detailed information can be found on the university benefits website at Health Care Flexible Spending Account.

Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account (Optional Plan: Eligible as of the date of appointment, online enrollment is required)

A dependent care reimbursement plan allows postdocs to use pre-tax dollars to pay for eligible dependent care expenses for children or dependent adults. Maximum contribution allowed is $5,000 per calendar year per family. The maximum contribution is also reduced by any Child Care Voucher and subsidy you receive through Backup Care from Bright Horizons. To enroll, please contact postdocbenefits@jhu.edu to make your election.

Internal Revenue Service regulations govern eligibility; you must receive a wage/salary to participate. Any compensation received through a grant in the form of a fellowship stipend is excluded from eligibility.

Income Deferral 403(b) Retirement Plan

JHU's retirement plans help you build toward future financial security. JH provides an amount equal to 2% of your annual salary to a retirement plan. In addition, this plan allows you to voluntarily tax shelter a portion of your taxable income received as compensation for services (i.e. salary/wages). The minimum voluntary contribution is $7.50 per month and may not exceed $23,000 per calendar year of your taxable income (maximum subject to change by the IRS). Detailed information and the portal to the enrollment site is available online at TIAA's website. The Income Deferral 403(b) Fee Disclosure document is available at The Income Deferral webpage.

For more information, contact the Benefits Services Center at 410-516-2000 or email benefits@jhu.edu. Any compensation received through a grant in the form of a fellowship stipend is excluded from eligibility.

Life Insurance (Effective the date of appointment, no enrollment form required; completion of beneficiary form required)

Johns Hopkins provides a $100,000 group term life policy as part of the benefit package to postdocs. The policy is underwritten by UNUM Life Insurance Company of America. Internal Revenue Service regulations (IRC section 79) provide exclusion for the first $50,000 of group term life insurance coverage. The imputed cost of coverage in excess of $50,000 must be included in income and will be reflected on your payment statements. This will appear on your payment statement under the heading Non-Cash Earning-GTLI Taxable Income. Depending upon your age, your semi-monthly statement will reflect an additional $1.50 - $6.00 of income on which tax will be levied. Failure to designate a beneficiary can result in tax liability to your estate.

Enrollment for this benefit is automatic. However, a Beneficiary Designation form must be completed and signed. To complete the beneficiary designation form, please visit: jhupostdocs.mycare26.com/benefits.

Health Care and Sick Leave Policy

The School of Medicine provides up to 13 weeks of paid sick leave to postdoctoral fellows who are unable to work because of their own or their family member's illness or injury and for routine health appointments. For more information on the policy, please visit: Health Care and Sick Leave Policy.

Long Term Disability Insurance (Effective the date of appointment)

Johns Hopkins provides long-term disability insurance through UNUM at no cost to postdoctoral fellows. The plan has two components, group coverage and individual coverage with automatic enrollment in each.

- The benefit is $3,000 per month ($2,750 per month for the group policy plus $250 per month for the individual policy).
- Benefits are payable after the 90th day of your disability with an approved claim.

The group policy is online at jhupostdocs.mycare26.com/benefits. The individual policy will be mailed by UNUM to your home address a few weeks following the effective date of coverage. In addition to the group plans, you are eligible to purchase supplemental individual disability insurance with UNUM through their agents, Covala Group. You will receive information about this voluntary plan from Covala via email. Upon program completion, you will be given the opportunity to increase your portable individual disability policy to a monthly benefit of up to $15,000 with a 30% premium discount.

Student Health & Well Being Primary Care

The Student Health & Well Being Primary Care (SHWB PC) Center provides a variety of primary care services for the evaluation and treatment of an illness or injury, preventive health care and health education. There are three primary care centers – Homewood, East Baltimore, and DC. To find out which center you are eligible for please visit: wellbeing.jhu.edu/PrimaryCare.

Student Health and Well-Being Mental Health Services (MHS)

SHWB-MHS provides a range of confidential, goal-oriented mental health services. Counseling, psychiatric services, group therapy, workshops, and online resources are available at no cost to students and trainees; any medication or required laboratory tests can be paid out-of-pocket or billed by the pharmacy or lab to your insurance.

All students and trainees seeking care at SHWB-MHS will be scheduled for an Initial Consultation (IC) appointment to assess for risk and make informed treatment recommendations. If your individualized treatment recommendations fall outside of our Scope of Service, you will be provided with referrals to off-campus resources and supported through the process of connecting with ongoing care. Referrals to off-campus resources may occur during the IC appointment, after further assessment of your needs during an initial course of goal-oriented treatment, or if the nature of your condition or presenting concerns change over time. For more information and to schedule an appointment, please visit:

wellbeing.jhu.edu/MentalHealthServices

Johns Hopkins Employee Assistance Program (JHEAP) (Effective the date of appointment)

JHEAP is available to postdoctoral fellows. Services are free and HIPAA-compliant and are provided by licensed mental health professionals. Services include short-term, solution-focused counseling with Johns Hopkins' EAP clinicians or with EAP clinicians in the community; referral to helpful resources; outreach to teams experiencing loss or disruption; trainings on topics related to stress and change management and mental health; and online educational and supportive resources. More information is available online at Employee Assistance Program.

Vacation Time

All postdoctoral fellows are eligible for a minimum of ten (10) business days per fiscal year (beginning July 1st) of paid vacation leave. For new hires, the leave will be prorated based on the month in which the postdoctoral training begins. Details can be found on the university postdoc website and on the university policy for postdoctoral fellows.

Postdocs should give notice to their mentor well in advance of any planned vacation taken.

The ten days' vacation are a minimum and the faculty mentor can choose to give the postdoctoral fellow additional paid leave as mutually agreed upon.

Sick and Safe Leave

Postdoctoral fellows are entitled to fifteen (15) paid business days at the beginning of the academic year (July 1st) for sick and safe leave. For new hires, the leave will be prorated based on the month in which the postdoctoral training begins.

For details on allowable sick and safe leave please consult the university policy for postdoctoral fellows and the university postdoc website.

The 15 days sick and safe leave are a minimum and the faculty mentor can choose to give the postdoctoral fellow additional paid leave as mutually agreed upon.

Although leave is not tracked in the same manner as for staff, per Maryland law, sick and safe leave must be recorded. This includes full days of leave taken where work cannot be completed at home. Consult your departmental administrator for the manner of recording sick and safe leave.

Parental Accommodations

All full-time postdoctoral fellows are eligible to take 8 weeks of fully-paid New Child Accommodations in accordance with the university policy for postdoctoral fellows and the new child accommodations policy for full time students and postdoctoral fellows.

Postdoctoral fellows should discuss with their mentor well in advance, all planned new child accommodation leave and any additional unpaid leave through FMLA.

Travel Immunizations

School of Medicine residents, postdoctoral fellows, and graduate students approved for an elective abroad should make arrangements for a pre-travel consultation, that includes receiving travel-related immunizations, from the Johns Hopkins University Student Health and Well-Being Primary Care.

You may schedule an appointment via the MyHealth Portal at myhealth.wellbeing.jhu.edu or by calling 410-516-3311.

A travel consultation is required before receiving travel-related vaccines. When making an appointment, it is recommended that you schedule an appointment at least 8 weeks prior to your anticipated departure date (sooner if possible). Vaccines necessary for travel are a covered benefit under your Wellfleet insurance.

JHUSOM will not reimburse learners for the cost of visits or vaccines provided at travel medicine clinics outside of the Johns Hopkins University Student Health and Well-Being Primary Care.

The following benefits are administered by JHU Benefits & WorkLife
Please contact 410-516-2000, childcare@jhu.edu or worklife@jhu.edu

Licensed Child Care in Maryland (Effective as of date of appointment letter issuance, registration required)

The Maryland Family Network is the state expert in licensed child care, helping parents and caregivers navigate child care by providing information, tools, and support networks. Learn how to choose quality child care, or access the child care locate search to find child care that works for you and your family, where you can search all licensed child care programs near your home or work location and find immediate openings.

Backup Care and Membership with My Bright Horizons (Effective the date of appointment, registration required)

We partner with My Bright Horizons to provide vetted back-up care for your children or adult family when your regular care is unavailable. The cost is partially subsidized by Johns Hopkins for up to 10 days a year. Additionally, you have a free My Bright Horizons membership to access an online caregiving network. Registration must be completed online with your JHED ID using this link; more information can be found here: Backup Care by My Bright Horizons.

Child Care Voucher Program (Eligible as of the date of appointment, application required annually)

Families with qualifying income levels are able to receive $5,000, $2,500, or $1,000 tax-free vouchers to help cover child care costs for children under 6 years old, who are not yet in kindergarten. Full-time house staff, post-doctoral fellows, doctoral and medical students, faculty and staff are eligible. Families with stay-at-home spouses do not qualify. Funds may be used for any paid child care and participants must enroll within 30 days of the start of their appointment and each year during annual enrollment. Program website with FAQs and application online at <https://hr.jhu.edu/ccv>.

Child Care Scholarships to JHU Partner Centers (Eligible as of the date of appointment, application required annually)

Taxable scholarships are available for the three centers that are Johns Hopkins partners: the Homewood Early Learning Center, Johns Hopkins Child Care and Early Learning Center (Bright Horizons), and the Weinberg Early Childhood Center, (<https://hr.jhu.edu/center-partners>). These awards can be used in addition to vouchers; apply for scholarship via the voucher application. Program website with eligibility conditions, FAQs, and application online at <https://hr.jhu.edu/ccs>.

Lactation Support Program (Effective the date of appointment, registration required)

Lactation rooms are located throughout our campuses for employees and learners who need a private space to express milk while at work. Registration is required and will provide room access and amenity information. Interactive maps, resources, policy and legislation, as well as Lacstation™ vending machine information, are available here: Lactation Support.

Qualified Life Events (QLEs)

When you experience certain personal events, such as getting married or having a baby, you can make changes to your benefits coverage. These are called “qualifying life events,” and they allow you to make a change to your coverage outside of annual enrollment.

Qualifying life events can include:

- Marriage
- Birth or adoption of a child
- Gain or loss of other coverage
- Start or loss of your spouse/domestic partner’s employment
- Change in employment status (for you or your spouse/domestic partner, from part-time to full-time or from full-time to part-time)
- Divorce or termination of domestic partnership
- Death of your spouse/domestic partner or other dependent
- Spouse/partner/children moving to the USA (3 or more months)
- Spouse/partner/children leaving the USA (3 or more months)

If you experience a qualifying life event, you have 30 days following the date of the event to provide documentation of the event, and make a change to your benefits coverage consistent with the event. (If you give birth, for example, you may add the baby to your current JHU benefits plans.) Generally, the change is retroactive to the date of the life event.

If you need to change your benefits due to a qualifying life event, please login to jhu.myCare26.com.

Remember, you must make changes no later than 30 days following a qualified life event or wait until the next open enrollment period.
