

Strategic Networking: Building Social Capital for Impact

Presented by the Women's Professional Advancement Council and the Office of Faculty

Unlock the power of meaningful professional connections! Strategic Networking: Building Social Capital for Impact is an interactive seminar where physicians and scientists will gain practical skills to expand opportunities, accelerate career growth, and strengthen collaboration across disciplines. Join us to transform how you network and elevate your impact.

Tues., Feb. 24, 2026
9 a.m. - Noon

Chevy Chase Conference
Room, Zayed 2117

Johns Hopkins Hospital
1800 Orleans Street
Baltimore, MD 21205

! Registration Deadline is
Sun. Feb. 22. CME credit is available.

Colleen Stuart, Ph.D.

Associate Professor at Johns Hopkins Carey
Business School and Co-Director of the Gender &
Work Initiative

Stuart's research focuses on gender inequality in organizations and occupations,
the gender promotion gap, and collaborative work.

JOHNS HOPKINS
SCHOOL of MEDICINE

Office of Faculty