The David M. Levine Excellence in Mentoring Awards
Criteria for Mentoring Award

1. Model for integrity and professionalism within the DOM

2. Evidence of mentoring (Skills); helping mentees to
   a. Advance in career and promotion (e.g., collaborations, networking, presenting, completing specific projects – collaborative or interdisciplinary)
   b. Develop leadership skills and other academic skills
   c. Balance career and personal life
   d. Gain peer review and other sources of funding
   e. Disseminate their work

3. History of mentoring (Scope)
   a. Number of Mentees
   b. Accomplishments of mentees (e.g. current position, grant support, publications, regional and national recognition, leadership)
   c. Innovative approaches to mentoring

4. Mentoring includes excellence in research, education and program building.