Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month by participating in any of the following activities to learn more about Hispanic history and culture. All are welcome.

September 26: A Taste of Hispanic Culture
Stop by the cafeteria for tasty food inspired by Hispanic traditions, including a burrito bowl, chicken tortilla soup, black bean soup and dessert. Complimentary salsa tasting.
11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.
Courtyard Café

October 1: Cultural Dance Cardio
Get your hips shaking and heart pumping! Join instructor Reggie Cole for this Spanish dance and Zumba-inspired exercise class!
All are welcome. You do not have to be a member of the Fitness Center to participate.
12:15 p.m.
Johns Hopkins Bayview Fitness Center, Aerobics Room

October 9: Lunch & Learn–Cultural Diversity Within the Hispanic Community
Hispanics may share a common language, but their cultures, values and beliefs are as unique as the countries they call home. Join us as employees from various backgrounds discuss the cultures of their home countries. Co-sponsored by the Johns Hopkins Familia Hispanic/Latinx ERG
All are welcome. Lunch is provided.
12 to 1 p.m.
Knott Conference Center

October 10: Patterson High School Career Day
Hispanic students from Patterson High School will be on campus for an engaging conversation about clinical and non-clinical careers in a health care setting.
9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Grossi Auditorium, Asthma & Allergy Center
