10 TED Talks by Hispanic and Latinx speakers

For Hispanic Heritage Month, the Mujerista curated this playlist of their favorite TED Talks by Hispanic and Latinx speakers.
Faculty & Staff Recognition

Nominate an individual for an Achievers Award in honor of Veterans Day

The Achievers Award Program recognizes and highlights those across Johns Hopkins Medicine who exemplify excellence and exhibit our Johns Hopkins Medicine core values. Recipients must be military or retired military and will be recognized on Veterans Day. Nominate a deserving colleague here. The deadline is October 15, 2020.

Highlighting Hispanic Female Full Professors at Hopkins

Laurie Lee Faradjo, MD (Promoted in 1999) is a Professor in the Department of Radiology at the University of Utah School of Medicine. Prior to this, she served as the Chair of the Department of Radiology at the University of Iowa for 10 years and as the Division Director of Breast Imaging for 3 years. Dr. Fajardo joined the JHU Department of Radiology in 1999, as Director of Breast Imaging and Vice Chair for Clinical Research. While at JHU, Dr. Fajardo completed an MBA degree in the JHU Business of Medicine program. Her research work has focused on the applications of digital imaging technology to screening and diagnosing breast cancer.

Hispanic Heritage Month Events

Latinos Beyond Reel
Sept. 15 – Oct. 15
Latinos Beyond Reel is a documentary that tackles media stereotypes and highlights how they impact and misrepresent the LatinX community. We encourage you to watch this documentary and join us for our panel discussion, "Diversity in the Media: Why Visibility Matters" (date TBD). Stream the documentary for free here throughout the month.

Walking Wednesday
Sept. 16 | 12 – 12:15 p.m.
Join Healthy At Hopkins for a web-based meet-up that incorporates dance moves, such as the salsa, mamba and merengue to keep you active and moving while at work. Log in here.

Beyond Hispanic: Languages and Cultures in Latin America
Sept. 24 | 2 – 3:30 p.m.
Join us for a cultural and historical overview of Latin America, focusing on populations with a significant presence among Baltimore’s Spanish-speaking communities. Often overlooked under the label "Hispanic," such communities include members of several indigenous groups from Mexico, Central America, and Ecuador – groups with unique historical, cultural and linguistic characteristics that need to be taken into account in order to achieve culturally sensitive, inclusive and equitable health care outcomes. Register here.

LatinX Identities: A Diverse Community
Sept. 30 | 12 – 1:30 p.m.
By sharing our stories, we share parts of ourselves and cultures, while inspiring others to do the same. Join us to hear some of our own LatinX employees, discuss how being LatinX has impacted their journeys and careers. Register here.

Supporting the LatinX Community During COVID-19
Oct. 7 | 12:30p.m. – 2 p.m.
Join us for a panel discussion as we discuss how Johns Hopkins Medicine has managed to support the LatinX community in the midst of a global pandemic. Register here.

Walking Wednesday
Oct. 14 | 12 – 12:15 p.m.
Join Healthy At Hopkins for a web-based meet-up that incorporates dance moves, such as the salsa, mamba and merengue to keep you active and moving while at work. Log in here.
