

Office of Diversity and Inclusion

January 17, 2020

Please see this week's announcements from the Johns Hopkins Medicine, Office of Diversity and Inclusion.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Johns Hopkins Medicine: MLK Day Of Service

There's no better way to kick off the new year than by giving back to the community. Thank you to those you have signed up to support one of nearly 40 community organizations in and around Baltimore, Howard County, Washington, D.C., and St. Petersburg.

Volunteer Opportunities

New this year, we will also host a Community Health Fair in Baltimore on Saturday, Jan. 25, and we need volunteers. Please sign up to help at this event.

Clothing Drives

Another way to participate in the day of service is by donating new or lightly used men's, women's and children's clothing at one of several collection sites on Johns Hopkins campuses. You can also volunteer to receive and sort clothes at these collection sites. Clothing will only be accepted during specified times on Friday, Jan. 24 — it will be distributed the next day at the health fair. Learn more about the clothing drives and accepted items.

For more information about the day of service and to learn about other Johns Hopkins activities celebrating the legacy of Martin Luther King Jr., visit insidehopkinsmedicine.org/mlk.

Thank you for helping us model Dr. King's life of servant leadership by participating in these events and making a difference in our communities. #HopkinsBetterTogether

REMINDER: Implicit Bias Grand Rounds - February 6, 2020

Dr. Arghavan Salles from Stanford University, Founding Member of TIME'S UP Healthcare, is the Visiting Professor on Thursday, February 6, 2020. She will be presenting Multidisciplinary Grand Rounds - "Implicit Biases and the Games They Play". All School of Medicine faculty and staff are invited to attend, so please mark your calendar! If you have any questions please don't hesitate to reach out to Sapna R. Kudchadkar, MD, PhD: sapna@jhmi.edu

REMINDER: Distinguished Teaching Society (DTS) Award

The Distinguished Teaching Society (DTS) is a program that recognizes residents/faculty who demonstrate excellence in clinical teaching. We ask medical students to nominate residents and attendings that they have worked with on the wards and thought were exceptional educators (forms here: <https://dts.johnshopkins.edu/> nominations close early February 2020).

Contact Us

Johns Hopkins Medicine

Office of Diversity & Inclusion

1620 McElderry Street, Reed Hall, Baltimore, MD 21205

Website: www.hopkinsmedicine.org/diversity

Email: Diversity@jhmi.edu

Phone: 844-JHDVRSTY (543-8778)