Do you feel passionate about your area of expertise and want to share your knowledge with Hopkins employees? Ask the Expert is a weekly virtual program every Thursday from 12:00pm-12:30pm where employees can participate in a live, interactive discussion with an expert from our institution about a specific health or wellness topic. If you’re interested in being an expert for an upcoming session, please email Jennifer Salaverri.

Thank you dear faculty members! We appreciate all that you do. Know that we are here as a resource for you.
