Resources & Announcements

- A Faculty Factory Interview with Peter Densen, MD; Topics covered: Coaching, Leadership, Career Transitions; released 3/25/2022
- A Faculty Factory Interview with Rakhee Bhayani, MD; Topics covered: Professional Development, Stepping out of your comfort zone; released 4/1/2022
- Writing Accountability Groups (WAGs) A WAG is an active writing group that meets once a week over a 10-week block and follows a strict agenda of 15 minutes of updates and goal-setting followed by 30 minutes of individual writing, and then 15 minutes of reporting and wrap-up (there is no peer review of your writing – the WAG is focused on developing a process and habit of writing). A WAG is limited to 4-8 members and you MUST commit to attending at least 7 of the 10 weekly sessions. We guarantee that if you adhere to the plan, you will achieve increased writing productivity (quantity and quality), have greater control over the writing process, experience improved goal-setting and time management, and as a bonus, you’ll establish relationships with new colleagues and friends. WAG Scheduling Poll courtesy of Judy Greengold, MSN, CRNP, Family Nurse Practitioner.
- Wondering what the appointment approval process is? Or how to update your home address? Check out the Office of Faculty Information’s FAQs.
- Did you miss a session? Watch a recording!
- Honoring Our Pandemic Experiences (H.O.P.E.), a year-long initiative led by the Office of Well-Being. These events include storytelling workshops, reflective writing, an opportunity for employees to share songs from their pandemic playlists, and more.
