

From Bench to Bedside
Writing Workshop: 20 July 2016
Dr. Sarah Poynton

Teaching Plan

Time block	Time	Main topic	Lecture	Exercise	Instructor available for individual discussions
1	9.00 – 10.00	Building a proposal – the 10 min presentation	A proposal: Purpose, principles and persuasion	Content for the slides: Title, Background, Hypothesis, Objectives, Methods Clinical significance
	10.00 – 10.30 Coffee				15 mins
2	10.30 – 12.00	Writing a research paper I	1. Good to excellent 2. Writing from the reader's perspective 3. Basic structure	Critique Double Helix paper
	12.00 – 1.00 Lunch				30 mins
3	1.00 – 2.30	Writing a research paper II	4. Effective titles 5. Structure and strategy of introduction 6. Materials and methods 7. Results	Write titles Bulleted outline of Introduction Critique of tables and figures
	2.30 – 3.00 Tea				15 mins
4	3.00 – 3.45	Writing a research paper III	8. Discussion 9. Abstract	Critique of abstract(s)
5	3.45 – 4.15	Writing a cv	A curriculum vitae: Purpose, principles and persuasion	Check list of topics Added extras Self-descriptor
6	4.15 – 4.30	Review and Evaluations		Evaluations	