

Outcome Question Examples:

For Live Activities...

- List the major principles to be followed when screening your patients before athletic performances.
- Using a specific example, describe how you have changed or improved your practice as a result of attending this activity.
- Have you changed the way you manage and treat HIV/AIDS patients based on the knowledge gained from this activity? Please explain using specific examples of what you may have done with a patient prior to the activity and what you actually did after attending this activity.
- List the latest techniques for the management of esophageal disorders and use a specific example to identify how you use these techniques in your practice.

For Regularly Scheduled Conferences...

- Has your participation in this activity changed your protocol/case management in treating patients with carcinoma of the head and neck? Please explain using an example from the conference and be site and stage specific in your answer.
- Have you implemented changes in the diagnostic approaches used in treating patients with advanced stage head and neck cancer as a result of participating in this activity? Please explain using an example from the conference and be site and stage specific in your answer.
- Using a specific example, describe how you have changed or improved your practice as a result of attending this activity.