Thank you to __________________________ Nominee’s first and last name in ________________________________ Department
for doing something extraordinary!

How did this person show their golden heart? Tell us the story, giving details. (See back to add more comments.)

Or share your story online: hopkinsmedicine.org/jhbmcgoldenheart

_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________

Your name (please print)                        Date

Phone number
The Golden Heart Program recognizes employees or teams who demonstrate the Language of Caring.

A simple act of kindness can be the best medicine.