

9th JOHNS HOPKINS PITUITARY DAY

Saturday October 14th, 2017

Mount Washington Conference Center, 5801 Smith Ave, Baltimore, MD 21209

Time	Topic	Speaker
9:30-9:55 AM Registration
9:55-10 AM	Welcome and acknowledgments	Roberto Salvatori, MD
10:00-10:25 AM	Different kinds of pituitary tumors: acromegaly, Cushing, and non-functioning masses	Roberto Salvatori, MD
10:25-10:50 AM	The eye and the pituitary gland: why is important to SEE the right doctor (pun intended)	Andrew Carey, MD
10:50-11:10 AM	A patient's story	My life with Cushing since age 16
11:10-11:30 AM	Psychological Issues in Pituitary Diseases and Other Chronic Health Conditions	Lindsay Morra, PhD
11:50-12:10 PM	The nose: the door to the pituitary gland	Douglas Reh, MD
11:30-11:50 AM	Surgery for Pituitary tumors: pictures from the operating room in Cushing, acromegaly and non-functioning masses	Gary Gallia, MD, PhD
12:10-12:30 PM	Radiation therapy for Cushing, acromegaly and non-functioning tumors: when needed, it is a good option	Kristin Redmond, MD

12:30-1:25 PM Lunch

01:30-03:00 PM Round table sessions:

MEDICAL: So many pituitary medications for Cushing, acromegaly, prolactinomas and hypopituitarism...

SURGICAL: Hear from the pituitary surgeons and patients who already had surgery

RADIATION: Don't be scared to share your eXpeRience!

Attendance and parking are free

RESERVE YOUR SLOT BY EMAILING: PITUITARYDAY@JHMI.EDU OR BY CALLING 410-955-3921