

Events & Announcements:

September 25, 2013: Getting that Paper out the Door: Pearls & Pitfalls for Publishing

Are you interested in getting your research published? Would you like to learn how to become more proficient and productive in preparing your manuscripts? This interactive workshop, co-sponsored by the Office of Faculty Development and the Professional Development Office, is targeted for postdoctoral fellows, fellows and early-career faculty on adopting effective strategies for publishing research manuscripts. By participating in the Getting Your Paper Out the Door: Pearls and Pitfalls of Publishing Workshop, modeled after sound research-based principles, you'll write more— and worry less!

Register Now | September 25, 2013 | 8:30 - 10:00 a.m. | Location: 2024 E. Monument St., Suite 1-500/Rm.1-1500Q

September 25, 2013: NIH Early Career Awards Workshop

This event is co-sponsored by the Office of Faculty Development and the Professional Development Office, features faculty members who have either successfully received NIH K awards and/or served as reviewers. Learn how to prepare a successful application and how to access resources available to help you develop your proposal.

Presenters include Greg Diette (Professor, Medicine), George Dover (Professor & Director, Pediatrics), Gaelle Kolb, (Assistant Director, PDO), Cherie Marvel (Asst. Professor & Director, CNRLAB), Marsha Wills-Karp (Professor & Chair, Environmental Health Sciences-SPH), B. Lee Peterlin (Assoc. Professor & Director, Headache Research).

The NIH offers a number of different Career Development (K) Awards. For a complete list, please visit the NIH K-Kiosk website.

Register Now | September 25, 2013 | 1:00 - 2:30 p.m. | Location: East Baltimore Campus, Chevy Chase Auditorium, Zayed Tower, 2119A

October 9, 2013: Speak Like a Pro I

Whether you need to present your research to a small group of colleagues, at a major professional conference or board of executives, being confident and competent is essential. This workshop intends to uncover the art of speaking effectively with delivering oral presentations. Each participant is asked to prepare in advance a 10-minute presentation, which will be videotaped in order to provide instant feedback on their strengths and areas that need improvement. Second language speakers are strongly encouraged to participate. This event is co-sponsored by the Office of Faculty Development and the Talent Management and Organization Development.

Register Now | October 9, 2013 | 8:30 - 11:30 a.m. | Location: 2024 E. Monument St., 2nd Fl, Rm. 2-1002

Reminder: Call for Papers 2014 National Conferences

- Counseling Psychology in Action: March 13 – 16, 2014
- Society for Public Health Education \(SOPHE\): March 19 – 21, 2014
- National Hispanic Medical Association: March 27 – 30, 2014
- Anxiety and Depression Association of America: March 27 – 30, 2014

Upcoming National Events:

- NIH Health Disparities Seminar Series: September 19, 2013
- AMA's Commission to End Health Care Disparities Fall Meeting \(CEHCD\): Oct. 4 – 5, 2013
- Many Faces of Community Health: October 24 – 25, 2013
- 6th ACCR International Conference on The Science of Cancer Health Disparities: December 6 – 9, 2013

