

Events & Announcements:

Save the Date! Inaugural Community Building Event: December 11 (Afternoon)

Why is the success of underrepresented faculty important to Johns Hopkins Medicine? Who can help to ensure that you do not fall through the cracks? What is the difference between a sponsor and a mentor? Navigating this complex enterprise can be daunting and learning the keys to success (informal and formal) early in one's career is crucial. Initiated and sponsored by the Office of Diversity and Cultural Competence, this event will involve discussions led by Dean Rothman and other senior leadership (confirmed) along with other interactive activities. Mark your calendar! More information will follow.

Hispanic Serving Health Professions Schools (HSHPS)

HSHPS is looking for health professionals who can review ten or more student applications from October 28th - November 8th. Each application should take approximately 10-15 minutes to review.

If you can commit to being a reviewer, please register HERE (registration will take less than 2 minutes).

There will also be a kick off meeting where we will be walking everyone through the system and scoring criteria. The meeting date will be determined once we have the Review Committee established, but it will definitely be a one hour conference call. If you are unable to commit but know someone who would be interested, please forward this information to them.
