PHYSICIAN DISCLOSURE: INDUSTRY RELATIONSHIPS

Dear Patient,

I am a board-certified orthopaedic surgeon who is a member of our national organization, the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons (AAOS). This organization holds its members to a high level of ethical and professional standards in medicine and surgery. They have developed standards of professionalism and conduct for all orthopaedic surgeons.

One of the areas where the AAOS recommends full disclosure to the patient is any relationship that the physician or surgeon has with industry. They require that all member orthopaedic surgeons disclose to the patient any relationship the doctor has with industry so that the patient is fully informed of any possible conflict of interest between the doctor and the company.

I feel very strongly that you know as a patient that while I have relationships with industry, these relationships are to further science, research and teaching. While I am paid for some of these activities, my first and last concern will always be the welfare of my patients and with doing what is best for them. The AAOS has standards regarding how and under what circumstances a physician has a relationship with industry, and I abide by those standards in all cases.

I have the following working relationships with industry:

- Stryker Corporation—educational consultant (give lectures) and developing new total shoulder prosthesis (product development)
- DePuy-Mitek Corporation—educational and product development consultant for suture anchors used in surgery to attach soft tissue (tendons, ligaments) to bone
- DJ Orthopaedics Corporation—educational and salary support for our Shoulder Fellow who has finished his orthopedic training and spends a year with us

If you have any questions about these relationships we are available to answer any questions you might have.

Further information can be obtained from aaos.org/industry relationships, or you can call the administrator of The Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, Jo Jennings, at 410-955-1830.

Sincerely,

Edward G McFarland
