Respectful and Safe Care
- Be given considerate, respectful and compassionate care.
- Have a family member/friend and your doctor notified when you are admitted, transferred or discharged from the hospital or emergency department.
- Be given care in a safe environment, free from abuse and neglect (verbal, mental, physical or sexual).
- Know the names and roles of your health care team.
- Have your culture and personal values, beliefs and wishes respected.
- Be treated without discrimination based on race, color, national origin, age, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, physical or mental disability, religion, ethnicity or language.
- Be given a list of protective and advocacy services, when needed. These services help certain patients (e.g., children, elderly, disabled) exercise their rights and protect them from abuse and neglect.
- Ask for an estimate of charges before care is provided. Request information about charity care, if applicable.

Effective Communication and Participation in Your Care
- Get information in a way you prefer and clearly understand (examples: sign language, vision assistance, language interpretation). These services will be provided free of charge.
- Get information from your doctor/provider about:
  - Your diagnosis
  - Your test results
  - Outcomes of care
  - Unanticipated outcomes of care
- Be involved in your plan of care and treatment.
- Involve your family in decisions about care.
- Ask questions and get a timely response to your questions or requests.
- Have your pain assessed and addressed.
- Refuse care.

Informed Consent
- Give permission (informed consent) before any nonemergency care for procedures requiring informed consent, including:
  - Risks and benefits of your treatment
  - Alternatives to that treatment
  - Risks and benefits of those alternatives
- Agree or refuse to be part of a research study without affecting your care.
- Agree or refuse to allow any types of pictures, videos, or voice recordings for any other reason than your personal care.

Privacy and Confidentiality
- Have privacy and confidential treatment and communication about your care.
- Be given a copy of the HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices.
Complaints and Grievances

1. Complain and have your complaint reviewed without affecting your care or being subjected to discrimination or reprisal. If you have a problem or complaint, you may talk to your doctor, a practice administrator/manager, nurse manager or a department manager.
