2108 ACCP Recognition Award Winners

ACCP Distinguished Investigator Award
Craig W. Hendrix, MD - Wellcome Professor & Director, Div of Clinical Pharmacology, Johns Hopkins Univ

The ACCP Distinguished Investigator Award is given annually and is intended to recognize superior scientific expertise and accomplishments by a senior investigator, usually involving a distinct area of research in basic or clinical pharmacology for which the individual is internationally known. The candidate need not be a Member or Fellow of ACCP.

ACCP Honorary Fellowship Award
Markus Müller, MD – Professor & President, Medical Univ of Vienna

The ACCP Honorary Fellowship Award is given annually to a Non-member of ACCP and is meant to recognize primary activities within the immediate domain of clinical pharmacology. The award recognizes overall contributions to the field, rather than for any particular scientific work, by a senior investigator or authority having a national or international reputation in the scientific, public service, legislative, governmental or other area of endeavor impacting on the field.
