

SUBURBAN HOSPITAL

JOHNS HOPKINS MEDICINE

Suburban Hospital – Johns Hopkins Medicine

Pharmacy Residency Program [PGY-1] Introduction of our 2022-2023 Residents

Daniel Abate, PharmD
PGY-1 Pharmacy Resident
DAbate3@jhmi.edu

Daniel Abate, PharmD, was born and raised in Ethiopia. He moved to the United States after he finished High School in 2013. Daniel earned his pharmacy degree from University of Maryland. He has experience working in retail pharmacy for Giant Pharmacy and worked as a graduate Clinical Research Assistant at the University of Maryland Medical Center.

His clinical areas of interest include cardiology and critical care.

Outside of pharmacy, his interests include spending time with family and friends, traveling, and watching the premier league (soccer) on the weekends.

Nayeun Go, PharmD
PGY-1 Pharmacy Resident
Ngo2@jhmi.edu

Nayeun Go, PharmD, was born in South Korea and earned her pharmacy degree from University of Maryland. She has experience working in retail pharmacy for CVS Pharmacy and Wegmans Pharmacy.

Her clinical interests include oncology, infectious disease, and critical care.

Outside of pharmacy, she likes to travel, read, listen to music, and play tennis.