

2022 School of Medicine Postdoctoral Research Accelerator Award Call for Proposals

The Office of the Vice Dean for Education in the School of Medicine is pleased to announce a call for proposals for the 2022 Postdoctoral Research Accelerator Award. The purpose of the Research Accelerator awards is to enable postdoctoral fellows to expand their research in new directions by providing funding to assist with research expenses such as supplies, animal expenses, core facility fees and software purchases. Thanks to a generous gift from the DuBose Fund, we anticipate that up to 8 awards will be made this cycle. The maximum individual award amount is $2000.

The submission deadline is April 8th, 2022 and awardees will be announced in June, 2022. See below for eligibility requirements and submission guidelines.

Eligibility Requirements. Applicants must be full-time postdoctoral research fellows with appointments in the School of Medicine. Postdoctoral fellows should have at least one year of fellowship training remaining at the time of submission. First-year postdoctoral fellows and prior research accelerator awardees are not eligible to apply. Multiple submissions from a single applicant will not be accepted.

Submission Guidelines. Applications should be submitted as a single pdf that includes:

- Research Summary, including statement of how the funds will propel the applicant's research in a new direction and the significance of the new work proposed (maximum 1 page; references not included in page limit).
- Budget Form. Download and complete editable budget form (here). A maximum of $2000 can be requested; funds cannot be used for salary support and should not overlap with existing funding allocations.
- The applicant's Biosketch/CV.
- Letter of support from the applicant's primary faculty PI/mentor.

Applications should be submitted by email to the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs (postdocaffairs@jhmi.edu) with the subject line: Research accelerator application. The deadline for submission is midnight Friday April 8th, 2022.
