Fast Facts: Johns Hopkins Whipple Procedure

- ~350 Whipples performed over the past year
- Johns Hopkins performs more Whipples annually than any center in the U.S.
- The Whipple mortality rate for the last 5 years at Johns Hopkins is 0.8%
- Every pancreatic surgeon at Johns Hopkins conducts a large number of Whipple operations
- Average surgery takes approximately 4-6 hours to complete
- An approximate 1-week hospital stay follows a Whipple procedure