

Johns Hopkins Health Plans Corporate Giving Program

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

Johns Hopkins Health Plans is pleased to provide grant dollars to charitable organizations.

About Johns Hopkins Health Plans

Johns Hopkins Health Plans is a partnership between the Johns Hopkins Health System and the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine to develop and administer innovative managed care programs and solutions, serving more than 700,000 individuals throughout the Baltimore-Washington region.

We recognize many worthwhile charitable organizations are doing outstanding work in our region. We want to support as many charitable organizations—consistent with our giving guidelines—as our funding allows.

Focus Area

Johns Hopkins Health Plans' primary focus area for funding is to address Social Determinants of Health and Wellbeing, including:

- Food insecurity: fresh food access and education about healthy food choices for the entire family
- Healthy aging in place: supportive programs to prioritize and empower senior health
- Programs that educate, empower, and support families and communities to better understand and care for the mental health of youth.

Application Process

- Johns Hopkins Health Plans is accepting grant applications to fund meaningful programs that can be tracked/monitored and have proven outcomes.
- Local non-profit organizations are invited to apply for a grant up to $20,000 by completing the enclosed application.
- Grantees must be a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Johns Hopkins entities are not eligible. • Applications will be reviewed and scored with a decision made within 30-45 days. • Submit applications to Communityrelations@jhhp.org (Community Relations office at Johns Hopkins Health Plans).
- Organization will be notified whether the award is approved or declined.

Evaluation guidelines:

- The requesting organization should align with the mission of Johns Hopkins Health Plans, which is to empower people on their journey to good health.
- Grant amount will be determined by need and alignment of mission and focus area.

For questions about the program, contact the Johns Hopkins Health Plans Community Relations team at: Communityrelations@jhhp.org.

Thank you for your interest.